

2012 MANPRINT Practitioners Workshop

“Rebalancing Army Forces and Resources: MANPRINT is Right and Ready for the Challenge”

25-26 September 2012

Holiday Inn Alexandria-SW

2460 Eisenhower Drive

Alexandria, VA 2314

Reservations: 703-960-3400*

All are welcome. The workshop is designed for specialists in manpower, personnel, training, human factors engineering, system safety, health hazards, and soldier survivability from government, industry, and the academic community.

“The MANPRINT Practitioner’s Workshop provides attendees and their commands with tools and proven approaches to enhance the effectiveness of the materiel development process.”

-Dr. Michael Drillings, Director for MANPRINT

Please RSVP to Emilie Menefee at emilie.c.menefee.ctr@us.army.mil as soon as possible or no later than 17 Aug 2012.

Travel/Hotel Accommodations:

There is no charge for participation in the workshop. Travel/ per diem will be at attendee expense. There is a block of rooms reserved for our group. The rate for the hotel is $109.00/night if the reservation is made prior to 17 Aug. After this date, the room rate will increase to $226.00/night, and room availability is not guaranteed after this date.

Please indicate you are with the MANPRINT Practitioners Workshop.*